

Do older cats spend more time indoors?

Some 7% of cats in the study spend more than 17.5 hours per day indoors. Cats who spend more than 17.5 hours a day indoors tend to be among the faster cats, having higher average ground speed compared to cats who spend less time indoors! Age seems to have minimal impact on speed.

